

University of Missouri Extension presents:

1st Annual Southwest Regional Master Gardener Field Day

Saturday, August 19, 2017 from 9-3:30

Springfield Botanical Gardens
2400 S. Scenic Ave.
Springfield, MO 65807

Workshop Schedule

- 8:30 am - Coffee and Registration
- 9:00 am - Welcome
- 9:10 am Garden Tours
- tour of hosta garden; hosta digging and dividing seminar
 - guided tram tour of the Beautiful Springfield Botanical Gardens
 - guided tour of the Butterfly House
- 11:30am - Catered Lunch in Botanical Center Meeting Room
- 12:30 pm - Indoor Educational Sessions Begin
- 12:30 pm - 'Growing Blackberries in Missouri' by Patrick Byers, Horticulture Specialist, MU Extension
- 1:30 pm - 'Native Butterflies and Moths of Missouri' by Dr. Chris Barnhart, professor of biology at Missouri State University and curator of the Dr. Bill Roston Native Butterfly House at the Springfield Botanical Gardens
- 2:30 pm - 'Growing Hostas in Missouri' by Tom Lakowske, president of the Greater Ozarks Hosta Society and MG of Greene County member
- 3:30 pm - Dismiss

-Workshop is $35 per attendee.

-Workshop counts as 5 hours of Advanced Training for Master Gardeners

-Spouses and Guests Welcome!

-Contact Kelly McGowan at mcgowan@missouri.edu or Robert Balek at balekr@missouri.edu for more information

-Register on-line at:

<https://www.eventbrite.com/e/1st-annual-sw-regional-master-gardener-field-day-tickets-36589534282>

Or call 417-874-2953